Retransmitted with compliments.

21) In his letter of the 9th instant, Mr. Hayavadana Rao, has written to say that he proposes to close volume I of the book with 16 chapters. Fifteen of these have been passed for print, and the 16th chapter is in the proof stage. This will also be printed early. The Table of contents and the preliminary pages for this volume are promised to be sent early. Thus volume I will be finished in the course of another month or so and will make about 550 pages.

22) Manuscript copy for volume II has not been received. The author promises to forward this to the press shortly. This volume is expected to make about the same size as volume I. At the rate at which we are progressing, this will take about 10 months to complete.

23) There are a number of illustrations to to go into the book. Estimates are being called for for making blocks and when the blocks are made, copies will have to be printed.

24) The author wishes both the volumes to be issued together. So, the binding of volume I will have to be stopped for the time being and taken up after volume II is printed.
